The Philippine Embassy in Berlin will only review and verify your requirements and if found in order, we will forward the said application to the approving Philippine Foreign Service Post (FSP) for their approval. Please be advised that the turnaround time for this process would take approximately 6-8 months depending on the volume of the documents being processed by said FSP. Please note that these documents are sent via Berlin-Manila-FSP then once approved the documents go through FSP-Manila-Berlin as we do not have the facility to send civil registry documents directly to other FSPs. Another option is to file it directly with the approving FSP for a faster turnaround time.
